Villa Io

Villa Io has been featured in the well established Greek magazine, Vimagazino in August 2010. Tucked away behind high walls, in a secluded part of Megalohori, provides privacy in a harmonic and spacious retreat reminiscent of old grandeur. An ideal hide-away, this haven of peace built into the volcanic rock, once served as the village school to the local children and today is a magnificent villa that can accommodate up to 6 people.
